

Naoko Kobayashi

A resident of Namie Town. Member of Tamura Ouentai, Tamura City Reconstruction Support Team until last year.

Born in Tamura City, living in Namie Town. She was born and grew up in Tamura City. After spending her student years in Fukushima City, she returned to her hometown and joined the Tamura Ouentai to support the life of both evacuees and returnees in Tamura City. Tamura City encompasses the Miyakoji area, the residents of which were ordered to evacuate, and other areas with no evacuation order. Due to such a complex condition, she had to face various regional issues changing rapidly in each area with time. She married in 2016 and now lives in Namie Town where the evacuation order was lifted in the spring of 2017. She lives with her husband who is a civil servant.
