

Hidetomo Sakagami

Director of NPO Costar

Born in Tomioka Town. Living in Koriyama City. He graduated from the National Institute of Technology, Fukushima College. After graduating from the Graduate School of Tohoku University, he joined the NPO sector. To date, he has joined a Koriyama-based NPO and engaged in support for the people living in the temporary housing in Koriyama City and for the establishment of NPO to facilitate the activities of people telling their personal stories in Tomioka Town. Last year, he organized a workshop named "Fukushima-study Seminar" with Mr. Kainuma in Koriyama City, where his NPO is based. The workshop was designed for the Fukushima residents to study the present condition of Fukushima and decommissioning work actively throughout the year. On February 28, they conducted a Fukushima Daiichi observatory tour. The tour was picked up by the Yomiuri Shimbun (Major Japanese news paper) and broadcast in the Fuji Television program "Your Time."
