

○ Atsushi Matsumoto

Representative of FiveStar

Born in 1980 in Yamadahama in Naraha Town, Fukushima Prefecture. Videographer Originally a company worker, in August 2015, he started filming with drones and preserving the landscape and houses of the Futaba district. He has been involved in diverse activities including production of the “Naraha Channel,” a video channel that broadcasts information on the nature, history, culture, and people of Naraha Town from a light perspective, and filming the video that was used on the American Embassy’s YouTube channel, and his activities have been covered by numerous media outlets such as NHK. He continues his activities in the Futaba district while looking after his children in Iwaki City, to which the family evacuated.