

Dr. Vincent GORGUES

Experience

2015 – now Atomic Energy Commissariat

- Since 2015: Strategic Director for Decommissioning and Dismantling (civilian & defence – 740 M€ annual budget, 36 installations) & Project Portfolio Director.
- From 01/2018 to 01/2021 (in addition): Director for Decommissioning and Dismantling for civilian installations (# 600 people on 3 industrial locations)
- Since 2015: Senior advisor to CEA's CEO on nuclear safety and project management

2009 – 2015 Areva NC – Back End Business Group

- Deputy technical director – head of project department (2 years)
- Industrial excellence director (2 years, in addition to production manager role)
- Production manager – plutonium conversion plant (4,5 years)

2007 – 2009 General Secretariat for National Defence & Security

Deputy director for non-proliferation, science & technology

2005 – 2007 General Directorate for Armament

Project manager on fissile material procurement for nuclear defence

Academic and professional training

09/2016 – now	Teacher at Ecole Polytechnique, Metz University & Luxembourg Superior Institute for Economy: Project & Project Portfolio Management Courses
09/2016 – 02/2021	PhD in management – Université Paris Saclay : “Lean and nuclear safety: an oxymoron?”
05/2021	Programme Director Level A – International Project Management Association (IPMA)
12/2012	Lean 6 Sigma Black Belt certification – BMG International
2004 – 2005	Master of Management – Ecole des Mines of Paris
1999 – 2002	Master of Science in engineering – Ecole Polytechnique

Languages & Miscellaneous

- French, English (perfectly fluent). German (high school level).
- Vladimir & the Prime minister, economic novel, Bourin Editeur, Paris, 2006